

2 Admissions Policy

The following outlines what Kagoshima Immaculate Heart College looks for in a student.

- Students looking to acquire both people skills and high level professional expertise with the hopes of contributing to the betterment of society.
- Students with a strong desire to acquire the fundamental skills necessary for a career in today's modern society.
- Proactive students with a strong desire for continuous learning.
- Students who wish to become a strong independent member of society.

In line with the admission policy, the college offers 3 entrance examinations which comprehensively evaluate not only a student's scholastic ability but also their critical thinking, judgement and reasoning, ability to express themselves and the manner in which they will learn and cooperate with a variety of different people and personalities. For more detailed information on exactly what prospective students will be evaluated on please consult our website.

The following are the admission policies for each individual course.

Science of Living Department

Science of Living Major, Modern Business Course.

(Skills, Knowledge, Understanding)

- Students who hope to learn and acquire a wide range of skills and knowledge in order to play an active part in the modern business world.
- Students who wish to improve inside and out

(General Ability)

- Students with basic comprehension and writing ability.
- Students who will listen to others while also expressing their own opinions.

(Attitude)

- Students who are looking to improve themselves.

Science of Living Major, Creative Living Course

(Skills, Knowledge, Understanding)

- Students with a strong interest in both Japanese and international fashion culture as well as arts and crafts, and the desire to improve their power of expression.

(General Ability)

- Students with basic comprehension and writing ability who will listen to others while also expressing their own opinions.

- Students who will understand and respect the people around them.

(Attitude)

- Students who will constantly challenge themselves and never give up.

Child Studies Major

(Skills, Knowledge, Understanding)

- Students with comprehension and writing ability at a high school graduate level.
- Students with the desire to gain expertise in the field of childcare.
- Students who wish to work with others and contribute to society.

(General Ability)

- Students who know the importance of life and have the will to learn about the development and growth of children.

(Attitude)

- Students who can work and learn with others.
- Students who will work hard and commit to their studies.

Food and Nutrition Major

(Skills, Knowledge, Understanding)

- Students with the desire to gain expertise and study a wide range of subjects within the field of food and nutrition.

(General Ability)

- Students with Japanese language and mathematical comprehension, who wish to learn more specialized knowledge.

(Attitude)

- Students who can work as part of a group and also wish to gain the ability to judge and act on a situation independently
- Students with both physical and mental strength who will be able to persevere through experiments, practical work etc.

English Department

(Skills, Knowledge, Understanding)

- Students who enjoy English and have the fundamentals skills in both Japanese and English that now wish to take their English language ability to the next level.
- Students who wish to learn about practical English and international culture, who want to one day become a bridge between Japan and the global community.
- Students who have an interest in learning and gaining skills in languages other than English.

(General Ability)

- Proactive students who can communicate and work with others to find solutions to problems.
- Students who wish to acquire skills and occupational knowledge for success in today's modern society.

(Attitude)

- Proactive students with the strength and fortitude to improve their English skill.
- Students with an interest in cross-cultural communication that wish to contribute to the revitalization of the local community.